Oklahoma City, OK. (August 26, 2009). On September 22, 2009 a Who's Hiring Now in Oklahoma City Career reception will be held at Langston University's Oklahoma City Campus' Conference Center, 4205 Lincoln Blvd. The Career Reception runs from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m., and is free to all job seekers whose work is in the Professional category, as well as to Hiring Companies in all industries that have these position open. Pre-registration is required, and can be done online from the event coordinator's website.

The event aims to connect Oklahoma City Hiring Managers with an array of professional, qualified, and diverse potential job candidates in an atmosphere that is conducive to serious but relaxed conversation. Light refreshments will be served. Companies that are hiring or expect to be hiring in professional job categories within the next month are encouraged to take advantage of this unique setting. Job seekers should wear business attire, bring a professional resume, and be prepared to present themselves to Hiring Managers in this informal setting.

The event's Corporate Sponsor is The Prudential Insurance Company of America. Non-profit partners that make up the event's Planning Committee come from organization such as Oklahoma City Human Resource Society, Capital Chamber of Commerce, Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Vietnamese-American Community Association, and Langston University – OKC Campus. Tailor Made To Fit Productions is also volunteering its assistance. The event is being coordinated by We Care Worldwide Inc in collaboration with Positive Images Community Outreach. All members of the team are reaching out to all sectors of the community to invite hiring managers and professionals who are seeking jobs.

"We've not formally advertised yet, but the Planning Committee is already getting the word out," says Steve Conley, CEO of We Care Worldwide, Inc, the event's coordinator. Conley went on to say that Prudential is demonstrating its commitment to the Oklahoma City community by sponsoring events such as this one, a sentiment echoed by the entire Planning Committee.

The public can register online for this event and see examples of Hiring Companies' open positions at www.wecareworldwide.com/sept2009.htm, or call 314 414 2900 x93. Questions should be directed to the staff at 314 414 2900 x5 or 98.
